Badminton

Badminton is an indoor sport that is played with a lightweight racquet and a shuttlecock. Badminton originated from the country estate of the Dukes of Beaufort in England. The game was played for the first time in 1873. Later, the origins of badminton spread to China, Greece and India.

One of the most popular badminton athletes in Malaysia was Datuk Seri Lee Chong Wei. He spent 349 weeks as the World No. 1 and won 69 singles titles during his career. He made his first international debut at the 2000 Asian Junior Championships. He is now retired from the sport, and now younger athletes like Lee Zii Jia, Pearly Tan & M. Thinaah and more take part in badminton.
