

Get to Know Me

Instructions:

- 1 Teacher divides pupils into five groups.
- 2 Each group will need to do an online research on a notable Malaysian historian, with the teacher assigning the historians in an upcoming session.
- 3 Pupils need to collect information about their assigned historian's background, including their date and place of birth, physical appearance, personality traits and significant contributions to the country.
- 4 After collecting the information, present your findings in front of the class using various creative presentation methods like mahjong papers, scrapbooks or others.
- 5 Pupils from other groups are encouraged to comment and ask questions about other group's historians.

Examples of Malaysian historical figures:
