Hi Arian,
 I saw a notice about a storytelling competition yesterday. It will be held on Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Greenfield Library Reading Room. Children will tell interesting stories and I think it will be fun and exciting. I know you like listening and telling stories. Let's meet at the library entrance at 9.45 a.m. so we can go in together. I hope you can join me.

Nutrition Labels
Why are nutrition labels important?
Nutrition labels help children and parents choose healthy foods. They guide children to: • make healthier choices • improve their energy • prevent health problems

What information can you find?	Healthy vs Unhealthy Food
Nutrition labels show: • calories • sugar • fat • protein • vitamins	Foods with high sugar and fat → should be eaten less often Healthier choices: • fruits • vegetables • whole grains
Making Better Choices	Learning with Parents
Cereal with high fibre is better than one with high sugar. Healthier drinks: • water • milk • unsweetened juice	Parents can guide children to read labels while shopping. This helps children: • to stay healthy • plan meals

Speaking

My Healthy Day

Today, I have a healthy day. For breakfast, I eat scrambled eggs with wholemeal bread. For lunch, I eat roasted chicken with rice. I also have a banana and some grapes for snack. I drink plain water.

These foods are healthy because they have protein, fibre and vitamins. They help my body grow strong and give me energy. Eating fruits and drinking water are good for my health. My tip to being healthy is to drink more water every day so that we can stay hydrated.

Subject	My Exam Result
Hi Anandan, I am happy because I got good results in my recent exam. I got high marks for English and Mathematics. I studied hard by revising my notes and doing extra practice every day. I feel proud but I want to improve more. Can you give me some study tips for the next exam? See you soon, Ameer

Hi Annette,

I saw a poster for a wildlife awareness talk at our school. Do you want to join me? The talk will be on this Friday from 2.30 p.m. to 4.00 p.m. and it is free. We will learn about endangered animals in Malaysia and why some animals become extinct. We can also learn how to protect wildlife and join fun quizzes and activities. The speaker is Dr Lina. We should register early because there are limited seats. I hope you can come with me.

Hi Mom,

I saw an advertisement for Fresh Fruit Smoothies at The Fruit Bazaar in City Mall. It is on Saturday, 10 June from 10.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. Each cup costs only RM8. The smoothies are made from fresh fruits like mango, banana and strawberry. They are healthy, full of vitamins and ready in just 5 minutes. Can you please buy one for me? It looks tasty and refreshing. I really want to try it.

From,

Leo
