READING EXERCISE

Read the text below and choose the correct answers.

How do you feel about having a robot companion? Do you think life would be much easier if robots were around? Robots are machine-programmed. They carry out technical tasks, such as mechanical services. They are able to copy human actions too.

Now, over 2 million industrial robots are used widely in the world. These robots are used in various fields, such as healthcare, space exploration, agriculture and production. Besides that, there are also robot restaurants and hotels in countries like Japan and China. Humans create robots to perform tasks that are impossible to do. Robots are cost-effective too, as they do not require any meal breaks, life insurance or healthcare.

In conclusion, robots will change the world. They will increase productivity, job opportunities, economic growth and help humans deal with hazardous tasks. Are you excited about the future?

READING EXERCISE

Read the text below and choose the correct answers.

Glamping is a camping activity, but with comfort and luxury. You will sleep in a room with electricity, running water and delicious cooked meals. How did glamping come about? Most people dream about sleeping in nature.

However, they don't prefer to sleep in a small tent, deal with mosquito bites and clean themselves in rivers or shared toilets. Therefore, that's where the idea of glamping came.

Tiarasa Escapes, Glamz @ Genting and Tanah Aina Fahad are some of the popular glamping sites in Malaysia. These glamping sites offer accommodation and services with the comfort and luxuries of a hotel. You can do all sorts of activities there, from jungle trekking, barbecue and picnics to even stargazing.

Each glamping site has its unique attractions and outdoor activities. You do not need to worry about food, as most of these sites already include buffet meals. Although it is a little expensive, you get to sleep comfortably surrounded by nature.
