Last Saturday, Hasni was in the kitchen making chicken soup. While he waited for the soup to simmer, he decided to watch the television in the living room. An hour later, he smelled something burning. Hasni panicked as he had forgotten about his soup.

The pot was on fire. Smoke clouded the kitchen. He tried to put out the fire, but somehow, it grew bigger. Hasni ran out of the house and called the fire department.

Ten minutes later, the fire department came and put out the fire. Hasni's kitchen was mildly damaged. He was disappointed and sad about his recklessness.

Last month, Mr Suresh and his family went to the Melaka Sultanate Palace Museum in Melaka. It was a replica of Sultan Mansur Shah's palace.

Inside the museum, they went to the throne room, saw a diorama of business traders during the olden days and mannequins wearing each state's traditional clothes.

Also, there were replicas of Malaysia's traditional houses and ancient weapons used by Malay warriors, such as daggers and cannons. Mr Suresh and his family had a fruitful visit to the palace museum. They learned so much history about Melaka.

Dear Azlee,

I hope you are well. After doing a lot of thinking, I think kayaking at Tasik Dayang Bunting, Langkawi, would be a fun activity. I hear kayaking is great for strength. You have never tried kayaking, haven't you? The duration will take only two hours compared to if you go camping or bird watching. In addition, the activity costs RM20.00 per person, which is quite reasonable. You will also improve your paddling and teamwork skills. I hope my opinion helps. Let me know what you think.

Yours truly,

Erine

Dear Sis,

Since our mother's birthday is coming soon, I think we should buy her the Frada handbag because her current handbag is outdated and small. I know the price is the most expensive, but I think it is worth it. The bag costs RM150.00 and comes with a year's warranty. If the bag is torn or needs cleaning, she can go to the boutique and ask for the service. Besides that, the handbag is made from leather, which is an excellent material. What do you think?
