Questions 24 and 25

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Hamsters are one of the popular household pets. It is small and friendly with people. Most parents will encourage their children to own a hamster as a pet, so that they can learn about responsibility before owning a bigger pet like cat and dog.

Hamsters are small in physical. They have short tails and their fur is in a variety of colours like white, black, and brown. What's cute about hamsters is they like to collect food in their cheek pouches and the pouches will become large.

Hamsters live in a cage and they like to squeeze through spaces. The cage should be covered with thick layer of litter. The litter should be changed at least weekly and the cage should be cleaned regularly with water.

Hamsters also need plenty of exercise like running on an exercise wheel to stay healthy. To ensure a longer life of a hamster, they should be fed with fresh fruits and vegetables.
