Dear Maya,

There will be several competitions held that you can participate in. I suggest to you to take part in the Scrabble Competition as you don't have to prepare or practise beforehand. I've played this game a few times with you and I know you're very good at spelling. The competition will be held on Monday at 10.00 a.m. in the Art room. You should give it a try. Good luck!

Erma was eating at the field during recess. She saw a boy walking towards the back of the library. He was carrying a can of spray paint. Erma could sense that he was up to no good.

She quietly followed the boy. She was shocked when she saw the boy spraying paint on a wall. A teacher was walking nearby, so Erma quickly informed her.

The teacher caught the boy red-handed and took him to the headmaster's office. As a punishment, the headmaster told the boy to do a mural instead of graffiti on the wall.

Last week, I had the opportunity to visit an orphanage with the members of the English Club of my school. We brought boxes of items such as clothes, books and food stuff which were donated by the pupils. We did several activities during our time there. We tidied the garden and helped with the daily chores such as cooking and cleaning. After lunch, we played games and performed a sketch for the children. The children were very happy especially the small ones. I hope to take part in more charitable acts in the future.

Question 1

Yesterday, Hakim went to the bakery. His mother had asked him to buy some bread for breakfast. After taking a loaf of bread, he went straight to the counter to pay.

Hakim was in a hurry and did not notice that there was already a lady there. She was putting her stuff on the counter. The lady looked a bit surprised when she realised Hakim had cut the line.

She tapped on his shoulder and told him to queue up. Hakim felt embarrassed and apologised to her. A couple of customers were already lining up. Hakim quickly walked to the back of the queue.

Question 2

Hani and her sister had just come back from shopping. They got off the bus and walked along the road opposite their housing area.

Suddenly, a motorcycle passed by, and the motorcyclist grabbed Hani's handbag. It happened so suddenly that the girls were too shocked to react.

They rushed home and told their parents about the incident. Encik Saiful took them to the police station to lodge a report.

The police officer advised the girls to walk facing oncoming traffic so that they can see vehicles coming towards them. They have learned their lesson and would be more careful and alert in future.

B (ii)

Dear Hafiz,

There have been several break-ins in our neighbourhood for the past few months. Therefore, the residents have formed a neighbourhood watch for everybody's safety. They are divided into several groups in which each group will patrol a specific area around the neighbourhood. All volunteers must always be alert of any suspicious person or activity that they may encounter during their patrols. If they sense something amiss or witness any suspicious activity in the neighbourhood, they should report it to the police. I hope with this neighbourhood watch, there won't be any break-ins in our neighbourhood anymore.

Question 1

It was the last day of school. The pupils of SK Harmoni were very excited. They did not have to learn. They were allowed to bring board games to school. Some even bought their handphones or tablets. They took pictures with friends and teachers using their handphones. When the school bell rang at the end of the day, the pupils cheered happily. A few girls hugged each other while some shook hands with their teachers. Several boys ran to the school gate as they shouted 'Happy holidays!' to each other. They would be on school holidays for over a month.

Question 2

Zarina and her classmates were at the school hall. They were waiting for their UPSR results. The headmaster was on the stage. He announced the school's overall achievement and the best student.

After that, all the Year 6 pupils lined up to get their results from their class teacher. Zarina was very nervous. When it was her turn, her teacher gave the result slip to her.

Zarina did not look at it. She went to her mother who was waiting nearby. She gave the result slip to her. Her mother looked at it and then hugged Zarina. She got straight A's! Zarina was overjoyed. Her hard work had paid off.

Dear Dad,

I had texted Uncle Rahman to pick me and Alfred up at our house and he said that he would come as early as 8.00a.m. in the morning to fetch us. I also hung my football jersey and pants on the clothesline at the backyard. Lastly, I will make sure that I lock all the doors and windows before I go out for my football practice. I can't wait to tell you how my football practice turns out when both of you come home. Bye.

Question 1

Last Saturday night, Syikin was alone at home as her family went to their cousin's wedding in Johor. Syikin didn't come along as she had to study for her upcoming exams.

She was studying at late night when she noticed a thief trying to climb up their house gate from the window that was left ajar. She was shocked and quickly called her father. Her father immediately alerted their neighbour, Encik Saad for help via text.

Encik Saad hit the thief on his head with pole before he managed to run away. Moments later, two policemen came and arrested the thief. Syikin was relieved and thanked Encik Saad profusely.

Question 2

One Friday evening, Ah Keong and his circle of friends were playing football near the bushes. They were playing delightfully without ignoring their surroundings although the place was full of scattered litters and rubbish.

They kept playing although it was getting late and darker. All of a sudden, a snake appeared out of nowhere and bit Ali's leg. Ali screamed in pain and cried for help.

His scream was heard by his friends who were shocked upon seeing the snake. Without delay, Ah Keong quickly chased away the snake with a stick. 20 minutes later, the ambulance arrived at the scene and took him immediately to the hospital.

Dear Nasuha,

How are you? My family and I visited Langkawi Island last school holidays for 3 consecutive days. We went to a lot of popular places there such as islands, factory and shopping malls. The places that I liked the most were Private Island and chocolate factory. I enjoyed swimming there with my siblings. The island was beautiful and crowded with people as the beach was clean. Also, I got to buy so much chocolate at affordable prices. That's all for now. Bye.
